Dear Geoff:

I want to express again my thanks to you for your participation in our discussion dinner on conventional arms transfer issues. Interest in the subject by both the government and academic communities was demonstrated by the vigorous discussion that followed Gerald Sullivan's opening remarks. This was just what I wanted and I am grateful for your contribution.

I suspect that as we continue working on conventional arms transfer issues we may find that further meetings on specific aspects of the subject will be useful. If such an occasion arises I hope we may again be able to call on you for assistance.

Yours,
